

This day-long symposium supports the field of bioinformatics and its UM Graduate Program. It includes tutorials, world-renowned speakers, a poster session, and a lunch hosted by the Bioinformatics Graduate Faculty. There is no registration fee. However space is limited, so preregistration is required.

<http://www.binf.umn.edu/>

Thursday, April 14, 2005
9-4:30pm - Tutorials
Friday, April 15, 2005
8-3pm - Talks
402 Walter Library
Preregistration Required

Speakers

Kenneth Baggerly, PhD
 MD Anderson Cancer Center, Houston

Dan Boley, PhD
 Computer Science and Engineering, UM

Yang Da, PhD
 Biostatistics, UM

Christine Elsik, PhD
 Texas A&M

Timothy Griffin, PhD
 University of California, Santa Cruz

Kevin Karplus, PhD
 University of California, Santa Cruz

Wei Pan, PhD
 Biostatistics, UM